

ACAP 6th Annual Conference

The value(s) of evidence-based practice and practice-based evidence in the helping professions

Draft Conference Program - Monday 28th October, Melbourne 2013

8.30 – 2.30	Registration
9.00 – 9.05	Welcome to Country
9.05 – 9.15	Welcoming Address – Dr Scott Dickson, Dean of NPI Pty Ltd
9.15 – 10.00	Keynote Address: Professor Bob Pease “Whose Evidence Counts? A critical appraisal of evidence-based interventions in the helping professions”
10.05 – 11.05	Session A: Symposium Kate Briggs, Jenny Coburn, Nigel Polak: Existential and humanistic therapies as evidence based practice	Session B: Individual papers – DSM-5 and Grief Matthew Bishop: The DSM-5 and the Meaning of Bereavement Dominique Robert-Hendren, Chris Lennings, Damith Woods: Delineating between complicated/uncomplicated grief and depression in clinical settings John Arber: DSM-5 Persistent Complex Bereavement Disorder: the complexities of identifying and applying appropriate treatment modalities	Session C: Individual papers – Psychology Training Lynne Harris: Challenges for Professional Psychology in Australia Ben Morrison, Natalie Morrison, Julia Morton, Jemma Harris: Making virtual patients more human: Embedding critical cue-inventories in computer-generated clinical training programs Jemma Harris, Ben Morrison, Natalie Morrison: A little less conversation, a little more action: Using guided discovery approaches to enhance teaching outcomes
11.05 – 11.30	Morning tea and coffee Poster session

ACAP 6th Annual Conference

The value(s) of evidence-based practice and practice-based evidence in the helping professions

	Kristen Willis: The Effect of Social Stress on Implicit and Explicit Self-esteem and Paranoid Ideation Peter Smith: Counselling and intellectual disability Christina Katterfeld: Concept analysis of student feedback in ACAP's School of Counselling Ketasha Govender, Ran Shi: The Effect of Positive Attentional Bias Modification Training on Performance versus Social Anxiety Vulnerability
11.30 – 12.50	Session D: Individual papers – Clinical Practice Denis O’Hara, John Meteyard, Kirsty Andersen, Fiona O’Hara: Hope in Counselling and Psychotherapy – some current findings Ann McDonald: Things Clinicians Need To Know for Safe Practice: Competing Evidence in the Forgetting and Remembering of Historical Sexual Abuse Louise Fisher: Searching beyond the lamp-post: A qualitative approach to establishing what works in psychotherapy Eileen Davis: “Look into my eyes, you are getting very sleepy” - Waking up to the value of therapeutic hypnotherapy	Session E: Individual papers – Current Research I Lara Kocijan, Lynne Harris: Fear of Positive Evaluation as a Cognitive Mediator of Social Anxiety Sharika Venugopal, Jemma Harris: At the 11th hour: Perfectionism and performance under conditions of time pressure Lauren Bourke, Ben Morrison: Evaluating Two Types of Cue-Based Training in Improving Decision-Making Performance: Singular Cue Acquisition vs. Decision Simulation.	Session F: Individual papers – Current Research II Fiona Ann Papps, Stephanie White: Eco-Chic: Green Consciousness and Women’s Internalisation of Cultural Norms about the Ideal Body Nicholas Formosa, Ben Morrison: Exploring the Impact of Post-Event Information on Ear-Witness Testimony Jaimie Bianca Bloch, Fiona Ann Papps: Intimacy as a predictor of sexual attraction in cross-sex friendships and friends with benefit relationships
12.50 – 1.40	Lunch
1.40 – 3.00	Session G: Individual papers – Considering	Session H: Individual papers – Therapeutic	Session I: Individual papers – Trauma and Recovery

ACAP 6th Annual Conference

The value(s) of evidence-based practice and practice-based evidence in the helping professions

	evidence Mike Innes: Can you please define what you mean by evidence? Vanessa Beavan: Lived experience – the missing piece of the evidence-base puzzle Emily McMahon: Importance of evidence based research in athletic retirement	Alliances Tess Reilly-Browne: Are we on the same page? Vicki Hutton: The complementary role of therapist and companion animal for people living with HIV in Australia Michael Darby: Practitioners' Personal and Professional Experiences of An Australian Mindfulness Therapy	Glynis Jenkins: Physical Exercise and Recovery from Substance Abuse Disorder: Results of an exploratory investigation of the experiences of participants who participated in physical exercise as part of their recovery process Anne Brumfitt, Carmel Malone: An evidence based investigation into the experience of loss and grief in foster parents on conclusion of child placements Belinda Jones: Parenting experiences of mothers with a history of childhood trauma
3.00 – 3.20	Afternoon tea and coffee
3.20-4.20	ACAP – Celebrating 30 years. Reflections on changes to the helping professions Presenters: Chris Graham, Head, Vocational Education and Training Professor Mike Innes, Professor and Head, School of Psychological Sciences Professor Ione Lewis, Inaugural Professor of Counselling and Psychotherapy and Head of School of Counselling Professor Carolyn Noble, Professor and Head, School of Social Work
4.20 – 4.30	Closing of Conference –Mr Andrew Little, Principal & Executive General Manager, NPI Pty Ltd
4.30 – 6.00	ACAP 30th Year Birthday Celebration Event		